

SØR-TRØNDELAG
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON MOBILE LEARNING: How mobile technology transforms and enhances student active learning processes

Sør-Trøndelag University College (HiST), Faculty of Technology Trondheim, Norway
Lomonosov Moscow State University (LMSU), Moscow, Russia

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use, which may be made of the information contained therein.

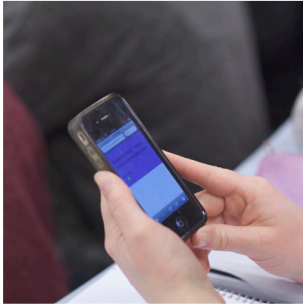

Supported by the Norwegian Centre for International Cooperation in Education (SIU).

International Workshop on Mobile Learning:

How mobile technology transforms and enhances student active learning processes

organized by

Sør-Trøndelag University College (HiST), Trondheim, Norway
Lomonosov Moscow State University (LMSU), Moscow, Russia

Tuesday 3.12.2013 from 10.00 – 16.30

Location: Hotel Savoy, Fasanen Strasse 9-10, 10623 Berlin, Germany

www.histproject.no

Mobile devices like smartphones and tablets are becoming pervasive and ubiquitous in the society, structuring the private, business and educational communication framework. These trends put tremendous pressure on high schools, colleges, and universities not yet ready to use these devices as powerful communication tools within education.

Sør-Trøndelag University College has recently lead 6 international European pilot projects, addressing how to effectively use mobile devices into teaching and learning processes. Similarly, Lomonosov Moscow State University during the last 2 years has led several Russian projects regarding mobile learning and mobile technologies.

The workshop is going to use hands-on training and demonstrate state of the art tools and methods that have been developed and used in Norway and Russia, including:

- Enhancement of class interactivity and communication processes through online response systems
- New assessment for learning methods that use immediate feedback to turn tests and exams into a creative learning activity
- Strategies for inclusion of mobile technologies into teaching practices, and development of new international research, development and innovation projects

Program

- 10.00 Welcome Senior Advisor Arild Smolan, HiST
- 10.15 The communication process from One to Many, and Many to One
How mobile technology transforms and enhances student active learning processes
Associate Prof. John B. Stav. HiST
- 10.45 SRS Workshop
Response in 1-2-3, turn your students mobile devices into immediate response tools with SRS
- Do you have students who do not participate in class?
 - Do the students really understand the content of your lecture?
 - How do you get feedback from the students?
- 12.30 Free lunch
at Hotel Savoy for workshop participants
- 13.30 From Traditional Lecturing to Interactive Discussion: Mobile Tools Implementation Experience in Russia (LMSU).
Experiences and plans for universities in Russia
Prof. Svetlana Titova, LMSU
- 14.00 PELE Workshop
Feedback in 1-2-3 by use of Peer Learning Assessment Systems
- Could your students immediately learn from mistakes during tests or exercises?
 - Do the students really understand the content of your course?
 - How do you give feedback to the students from assignments and tests?
- 16.15 Development of new international R&D&I projects.
Discussion
- 16.45 Evaluation in 1-2-3. Closure of workshop.

Deadline for registration: September 15, 2013 The number of participants will be limited. For registration contact John.B.Stav@hist.no or Arild.Smolan@hist.no